The mammoth candle at Putegnau's drug store is nearing the end and will probably burn down today. The candle was five feet and eleven inches in length when first lighted and has burned about seventy hours.

A very painful if not fatal accident happened to a little 4-years-old Mexican boy yesterday afternoon, by which he may lose an eye. The little fellow while playing in front of his home on Adam street ran too near a horse and was kicked in the eye.

The following articles are shipped to New York City by steamer Clinton this week by Mr. F. Armendarez: 651 deer hides, 250 salted beef hides; 9 bales horse hair, 8 bales goat skins, 7 bales deer skins, 4 bales kips and calves skins, 3 ales wild hog skins, 2 bales kid skins, 8 bales horse hair.

Little Wavelets.

POINT ISABEL, July 13.—There is very little news at the sea shore. Schooner Marie Isabel is still at Brazos, weather bound. The wind has been so strong and bar too rough for the Santiago to tow her to sea the past two days. May be able to get her out this afternoon.

The schooner James Andrew, which left here a month ago for Tuxpan with a cargo of salt arrived yesterday with a cargo of 200 turtles, from Tampico, to Mr. F. Garriga of this place. The turtles are being put in a pen. The vessel will remain in quarantine for a number of days and undergo fumigation, and after her release she will return to Tampico for another load.

Mr. W. F. Dennett came down yesterday to join Capt. Cummings' party at Brazos.

J. B. Wells, Esq., arrived here on the morning train to spend a few days with his family.

Mr. M. H. Cross and family are here for a week.

The weather is clear with a brisk southeast breeze, just right for sailing parties and it is being taken advantage of by our visitors.

Capt. E. J. Kennedy's family and Mr. B. Abadie's family are quartered at Brazos for the summer.

OCCASIONAL.

The democrats of Webb county, endorsed Judge Earnest for congress, but the Judge refused the honor and moved the adoption of a resolution instructing delegates to the congressional convention to vote for Crain. The county also instructed for Clark.
